Part 1. Parameters

...
c. 1 saw a house.
(b) 1 saw him.
(a) 1 saw you.
(b) 1 saw you.
(c) 1 saw you.
(d) 1 saw you.
(e) 1 saw you.
(f) 1 saw you.

Part II: Argument

(6) The Theta Criterion holds if there is no external or external to the world.

For every argument, there must be one and only one theta role.

(7) Types of functional features

(8) Does not demand that a functional element X be encoded as a lexicon unit.

(9) The Organization of Grammar

(10) The Parameters' Corollary
Part III. Case Subjacency
References

Child's analyses

(a) M. Aleman (1989)
(b) Chen (1992)
(c) Clark (1986)
(d) Clark (1989)
(e) Clark (1986)
(f) Clark (1989)
(g) Clark (1986)
(h) Clark (1989)
(i) Clark (1986)
(j) Clark (1989)

Part IV. Acquisition

- Semantic
- In-process
- NP-move
- V-movement
- V-movement
- Head-adjunct (word order)
- Variations Revised